December 2007

Dear Friends & Supporters

November brought times of gladness and sadness into our personal lives. First, we were saddened by the passing of Melissa's Grandmother, Lena McAnaulty on November 10th. She was 93 and had suffered for a while physically. She was a Christian and we know she's at home with the LORD! Then we were glad – we had the chance to visit both of our families over Thanksgiving and enjoyed our time with each of them.

Our meeting schedule took us from Gulfport, MS (Biloxi River Baptist Church) to Sevierville, TN (Shady Grove Baptist Church) and then to Culpeper, VA (Calvary Baptist Church). We are grateful for the opportunity to minister in these churches.

Melissa and I will take a few days off in early December for our anniversary and then I'll hit the road for a couple of December meetings (Murphy, NC & Gainesville, GA). Please pray for safety in our travels and God's hand in the meetings.

We both trust that you'll enjoy a wonderful Christmas and New Year celebration. THANK YOU FOR STANDING WITH US SO FAITHFULLY THIS YEAR!
